Please note that some of the references listed in this bibliography are not the most recent versions; I have listed the editions that are available in my office.

An excellent timeline on how to plan and prepare for the grant application and grant-writing process is available on the UC Berkeley Institute of International Studies Dissertation Proposal Workshop Web site at <http://iis.berkeley.edu/sites/default/files/timeline.pdf>. Although geared to students at the dissertation stage of their graduate careers, it is nonetheless a useful resource for all graduate students who will be applying for extramural or campus funding.

I. FINDING FELLOWSHIPS AND GRANTS

The Graduate Division Graduate Fellowships Office, University of California, Berkeley, is located in 318 Sproul Hall, (510) 642-0672. The Graduate Fellowships Office is open Monday through Friday, from 9 a.m. to noon and from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m.

Information on fellowships and grants is available on the UC Berkeley Graduate Division website at http://www.grad.berkeley.edu/financial/fellowships_office.shtml.

Graduate Fellowships & Awards Deadlines: <http://www.grad.berkeley.edu/financial/deadlines.shtml>

Go to the funding page (<http://www.spo.berkeley.edu/funding.html>) of the UC Berkeley Sponsored Projects Office (SPO) website to access the Pivot Funding Opportunities Database and to gather further information on finding external sources for funding.
